LUKE BLACKBURN HANDICAP IS WON BY TWO FEATHERS

Leads Devastation, the Favorite, All the Way in Three-Horse Race.

By Vincent Treanor.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, Sept. 20.—Two Feathers, with Factor up, instead of Ambrose, won the Luke Blackburn Handicap all the way this afternoon. He broke in front and withstood an almost continuous challenge from Devastation, the favorite, only to draw away to a handy two-length victory. Devastation had no excuse. Sedgely never was better than third.

The Xalapa Farm's Vista won the Woodmore Selling Stakes, coming from behind gamely and nipping Squaw Man on the post. The latter had all the early speed and was just a bit short. St. Michael was voted a good thing by his trainer, Jim Evans, out in the stretch after vainly chasing Squaw Man. St. Michael was third. The winner was heavily played by his stable connections.

Musty, a first time out jumper, nearly won the steeplechase from the odd-on choice, Robert Oliver. He led all the way, but made a bad landing at the final jump, Crawford losing one of his stirrups. As it was he was beaten only a head. Algonk, the second string to the entry, finished third.

The Onock Stable supplied the winner of the maiden jockey, with Castanet. She was ridden all over the track, but was good enough to win by three lengths. Grandson came strong and was just as easily second in front of the favorite, Clinchfield, who got third money. Parous stumbled right after the break and tossed her rider, Mein, off.

MARSTON LEADS OUMET THREE UP IN MATCH PLAY

Evans 10 Up Over Dexter in First 18 Holes of Title Game.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 20.—Francis Oumet of Boston, former champion, was three down at the end of the first eighteen holes of the first match round of the national amateur golf championship at St. Louis Country Club today. Max Marston of Philadelphia overcoming a lead of one held by Oumet at the turn and gaining four holes on the Bostonian in the second nine.

Chick Evans finished ten up on Dexter.

Bob Jones had almost as easy a match during the first match as Evans, stopping for luncheon with a comfortable lead of eight holes over Clarence Wolff, St. Louis, who did not give the Southerner much opposition at any point.

Willie Hunter, British champion, finished the morning round with a lead of two holes over E. Hoover.

Bankard of Chicago, who managed to lead the Briton even on the first nine, where both scored thirty-eight.

Guilford ended the first 18 holes one up to Von Elm, scoring 77 to the Utah player's 78, and more than wiping out the Westerner's lead at the turn with a 35, while Von Elm took par 36.

Russell Smith of Portland, Ore., won the play-off for thirty-second place from Prescott Bush of St. Louis, 4 to 5, and got the right to play Robert Smith of Seattle in the first round.

The heat increased to-day and the contestants worked their way over the hilly course dripping with sweat. An easterly breeze made the temperature bearable and was not strong enough to interfere with good scoring.

John G. Anderson of New York, led Jesse Sweetser, the only other metropolitan contender one up at the noon intermission, after turning two up by going out in 37 to Sweetser's 39.

L. E. Running of Chicago kept a one hole lead over A. P. Boyd, of Chattanooga, nearly all the way, finishing with a 35 to Boyd's 36.

FOCH IN TRAINING TO PREPARE FOR BANQUETS IN U.S.

Marshall Foch, who on Sept. 22 will sail for the United States, has gone into training for the trip on his Brittany estate, a few miles from here. He will stay there for a month, getting in condition to meet the rigors of a series of banquets he expects to attend while visiting the United States.

"Poor Marshall Foch was on the verge of dyspepsia when he returned from America," the Marshal remarked jokingly, "and he has a much better stomach than I. If the Americans insist upon banqueting me as they propose, I am afraid the 'Battle of America' will be my undoing."

DEMPSEY FIGHT INQUIRY ORDERED BY JERSEY COURT

Grand Jury Instructed to Indict if It Finds Law Was Violated July 2.

'NOT A BOXING MATCH.'

Justice Swayze Believes Bout Was a Prize Fight in Defiance of Statutes.

Supreme Court Justice Francis Swayze of New Jersey to-day charged the September County Grand Jury to make a thorough investigation of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight on July 2 and to bring in indictments against the principals and promoters if they found the law had been violated.

The court explained he had not been present at the battle, had not seen moving pictures of it and had not read a great deal about it, but from what he had learned it was not a boxing match, but a prize fight and as such was a direct violation of the State boxing laws.

In the course of his charge the Justice said:

"A provision that no decision shall be given does not alter in any way the character of the contest. That seems to me necessary only when there is some prize to be awarded and I suppose the object of the provision was to take away from those boxing matches the stigma of a prize fight."

"I find myself unable to understand how a prize fight is any the less a fight because there is no decision and the only reward is the gate receipts, than it would be if there were a prize offered under that name and a decision."

"The arbitrary fixing of the number of rounds at twelve and the weight of the gloves at eight ounces does not necessarily make it only a boxing match. A fight for twelve rounds only, with eight ounce gloves, might well be so brutal and demoralizing that the exhibition would cease to be a mere boxing or sparring match and would become a fight prohibited by the law."

"I need hardly say to gentlemen of your experience that the law cannot be evaded by mere names, and if in fact the contest of July 2 was a fight, and if it was only called a boxing or sparring match in name, that would not change its essential character as a crime."

"The question for you and me is not one of names but one of fact."

"The charge came as a distinct surprise to those in court, except perhaps Herbert Clark Gilson, attorney for the International Reform Bureau, who was in court with the Rev. William Crafts of Washington, Superintendent of the Bureau, who made strenuous efforts to prevent the holding of the fight."

It was believed the future that had been caused against the contest was over because, when the Wilson-Dewey fight was about to be held the Reform Bureau announced it would take no steps to prevent it, as it had exhausted its efforts in that line and failed to prevent the Dempsey-Carpenter affair.

The court also instructed the jurors to disregard all information made through warrants issued on information and belief in the carrying out of the State Enforcement Act as to the sale of intoxicants. Arrests must be made on information and fact.

MISS CLINES ASKS $100,000 IN BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

A $100,000 breach of promise action has been started by Miss Helen M. Cline, of No. 502 West 113th Street, Manhattan, against Harrison R. Moore, of No. 265 West 108th Street, Manhattan, it became known in Brooklyn Supreme Court today.

An application was made by Miss Cline's attorneys for permission to question the defendant before trial and to examine his bank account. Justice Strong denied the motion.

It was alleged that on May 15, 1921, Mr. Moore proposed marriage and was accepted by Miss Cline, and the wedding was set for some time in June, 1921, but the defendant refused to go on with the wedding.
